Numb. 13685.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 15, to Saturday July 19, 1794.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th of July, 1794.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable William Windham was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to deliver the Custody of the Privy Seal to the Right Honourable George John Earl Spencer, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this Day administered to him, and his Lordship took his Place at the Board accordingly.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Fifteenth of January, last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Twenty-fifth Day of this instant July; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer: His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Twenty-fifth Day of this instant July, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores; or ship or lade any of the Articles above mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats, in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Ex-

Whitehall, July 19.

A Letter, of which the following is an Extract, dated Contyck, July 15, 1794, has been received from His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

ON Saturday Afternoon the Enemy attacked all the Out-Poſts occupied by my Advanced Corps in Front of the Canal leading from Bruſſels to Antwerp, and, being greatly ſuperior in Numbers, drove them into the Town of Malines, upon which Place they likewiſe fired; but, upon a Reinforcement arriving, under the Command of the Earl of Moira, the Enemy fell back, with ſome Loſs.

This Morning, however, they renewed the Attack, and having ſucceeded in obliging the Poſts on the Left of Malines to abandon the Canal, and to retreat from the Dyle, Lieutenant-General Dalwig thought himſelf obliged to fall back to Welhem, where he has taken up a Poſition, to cover that Paſs of the River. I have detached Lord Moira to take Poſſeſſion of the Village of Duffel upon his Left; and General Wallmoden, with the Hanoverians, is at Lierre.

St. James's, Wedneſday July 16, 1794.

A CHAPTER of the Moſt Noble Order of the Garter having been ſummoned to meet this Day, the Knights Companions, in their Mantles and Collars, with the Officers of the Order hereafter mentioned, in their Mantles, Chains and Badges, attended the Sovereign in his own Apartment; and, being called over by Garter, a Proceſſion was made from thence to the Great Council-Chamber in the following Order:

Marquis of Stafford. Duke of Grafton.
His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter.
His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

Black Rod. Garter.

Chancellor.

The SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being ſeated, the Chancellor ſignified to the Chapter the Sovereign's Pleaſure for filling up the two vacant Stalls in St. George's Chapel at Windſor; and the Knights Companions proceeded to the Election. The Suffrages being collected by the Chancellor, and preſented to the Sovereign, Prince William Frederick, (now out of the Kingdom) Son of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter, was, by His Majeſty's Command, declared duly elected; and as, by the Statutes, none but a Knight can be elected, Garter and Black Rod were ſent to introduce his Grace the Duke of Portland, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, who was knighted by the Sovereign with the Sword of State.

After which the Knights Companions proceeded to a Second Election; and the Suffrages being collected by the Chancellor, and preſented to the Sovereign, the Duke of Portland was, by His Majeſty's Command, declared duly elected. His Grace was thereupon received at the Door of the Chapter-Room by the two Junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to the Sovereign, preceded by Garter King of Arms, (bearing the Enſigns of the Order on a Cuſhion) and Black Rod.

Garter King of Arms preſenting the Garter to the Sovereign, His Majeſty delivered it to the two Senior Knights, who buckled it on his Grace's Left Leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the Admoniti on.

Garter then preſented the Ribbon with the George to the Sovereign, and his Grace kneeling, the Sovereign, with the Aſſiſtance of the two Senior Knights Companions, put it over the Duke's Shoulder, the Chancellor in the mean Time pronouncing the Admonition; and the Duke, having kiſſed His Majeſty's Hand, and ſeverally ſaluted the Knights preſent, withdrew.

Garter then called over the Knights; and a Proceſſion was made back to His Majeſty's Apartment, in the Order as before.

Whitehall, July 19.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The unanimous Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the County of the City of Dublin, at Trinity Term, 1794, aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Foreman and Brethren of the Grand Jury of the County of the City of Dublin, at Trinity Term aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne with heartfelt Congratulations on the late glorious and brilliant Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms under the Command of that gallant and experienced Officer Earl Howe.

We fervently hope that the many and important Advantages obtained by your Majeſty and your Allies may incline the deluded Inhabitants of France to ſue for Peace; and that the Loyalty and Unanimity that prevail in theſe Kingdoms, may ſhew them the Madneſs and Impoſſibility of any Attempts to ſhake the Morals or Principles of Subjects who enjoy real Liberty, and whoſe King reigns in the Hearts of his People.

We beg Leave to return your Majeſty our grateful Acknowledgments for the continuing in the Government of this Country a Viceroy under whoſe firm (though mild) Adminiſtration, Outrage has been cruſhed; the national Strength called forth; the Vigour and Energy of the Law maintained; Public Credit upheld and extended, and ſuch wiſe and ſalutary Acts paſſed as entitle him to our fulleſt Confidence, and ſecure to your Majeſty's faithful Subjects of this Realm the ample Enjoyment of that unparalleled Syſtem, the Britiſh Conſtitution.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by the Lord Provoſt of Edinburgh to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the General Convention of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, aſſembled in their annual Meeting, according to the ancient Statutes of this Realm, embrace this Opportunity of preſenting at the Foot of your Majeſty's Throne the warmeſt Tribute of the Zeal and Affection of our Hearts, to the Perſon and Government of one of the beſt Princes that ever ruled over any Nation.

It is our Boaſt, that in theſe evil Times, when the Attacks of our foreign Enemies have been traiterouſly ſeconded by the Conſpiracies of domeſtic Foes, your faithful Burgeſſes ſtand firm and unſhaken in their Loyalty; and are at this Moment employed like true Patriots, in contributing every Aid that is in the Compaſs of their Abilities, in ſupport of the Civil Power and the Maintenance of the Executive Government of this Country.

The juſt and wiſe Uſe which your Majeſty has made of thoſe neceſſary Meaſures, which, through the Wiſdom of Parliament, have been taken to ſtrengthen your Hands, for the Protection of your People in this Conjuncture of national Danger, demands on our Part the higheſt Expreſſion of our Gratitude, when we conſider on the one Hand the Value and Extent of that Happineſs, which the execrable Machinations of our Enemies were formed to take from us; and on the other, the unſpeakable Miſeries which the Succeſs of their Schemes muſt have entailed upon this Nation; we offer up our Thanks to the Divine Providence for having thus mercifully vouchſafed to defeat thoſe dark and dreadful Purpoſes by a timely Diſcovery.

Permit us, Sir, at the ſame Time, to join our Voice to that of the great Body of the Nation in preſenting our moſt hearty Congratulations on the late glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the great Naval Victory obtained under the Command of the gallant Earl Howe over the Enemies of this Country, and the Foes of the Human Species: We anticipate with Joy the happy Effects of this ſignal Succeſs in haſtening that auſpicious Period when we ſhall once more enjoy the Bleſſings of a laſting and honourable Peace.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, at Edinburgh, the 9th Day of July, 1794 Years.

Tho. Elder,

Printed by EDWARD JOHNSTON, in Warwick-Lane.

On Thurſday the 19th of June I received a Deputation from the Aſſembly, preſenting to me a Copy of the Act of Union, and inviting me to return with them, that the Crown might be tendered to His Majeſty by the Aſſembly itſelf, in the moſt ſolemn and authentic Form.

I accompanied the Deputation; and, in Preſence of the Aſſembly, received from the Preſident, his Excellency General Paoli, in the Name of the People, the Tender of the Crown and Sovereignty of Corſica to His Majeſty.

His Excellency's Addreſs to me is contained in the Minutes.

After addreſſing the Aſſembly in a Manner which appeared to me ſuitable to the Occaſion, I pronounced, in His Majeſty's Name, the Acceptation of the Crown, according to the Articles contained in the Act of Union.

I then took, in His Majeſty's Name, the Oath preſcribed, "to maintain the Liberties of Corſica, "according to the Conſtitution and the Laws."

The Preſident then took and adminiſtered to the Aſſembly the Oath of Allegiance and Fidelity; after which I ſigned and ſealed the Acceptation annexed to both Copies of the Act of Union, one of which I have now the Honour to tranſmit.

The Day following (Yeſterday) Te Deum was ſung in the Cathedral, accompanied by the Diſcharge of Artillery; and Prayers were offered up for His Majeſty, by the Name of George the Third, King of Great Britain and Corſica. In the Evening the Town was illuminated, and the People demonſtrated their Loyalty and Joy by every Means in their Power.

The Aſſembly has voted, this Day, an Addreſs to His Majeſty, expreſſive of their Gratitude, Loyalty and Attachment; and have deputed Four reſpectable Gentlemen to preſent it to His Majeſty in London.

I cannot conclude this Diſpatch without offering my very humble Congratulations on the fortunate Termination of this important and intereſting Affair, at once advantageous, as I truſt, to the Contracting Parties, honorable to His Majeſty, and gratifying, in every View, to his Royal Feelings, as well as to thoſe of his Britiſh Subjects.

The true Foundation and Baſis of this Tranſaction has reſted on the Confidence inſpired by His Majeſty's princely Virtues, and the exalted Reputation enjoyed throughout the World by the Britiſh Nation for every honorable and generous Quality. The People of Corſica have, on one Hand, done Homage to thoſe Virtues, by confiding and tendering, even ſolicitouſly, the Sovereignty of their Country to His Majeſty; they have, on the other Hand, heightened the Value of that Confidence, by evincing that it comes from Men who have rejected, with Horror, the poiſonous and counterfeit Liberty of France, without being ignorant or careleſs of a well-ordered and conſtitutional Freedom.

His Majeſty has acquired a Crown; thoſe who beſtow it have acquired Liberty. The Britiſh Nation has extended it's political and commercial Sphere by the Acceſſion of Corſica: Corſica has added new Securities to her ancient Poſſeſſions, and has opened freſh Fields of Proſperity and Wealth, by her liberal Incorporation with a vaſt and powerful Empire.

This Diſpatch will be delivered to you by Mr. Petriconi, a young Gentleman of this Country, who has ſerved with Diſtinction throughout the War, under the Orders of General Paoli, and particularly in the Sieges of Baſtia and St. Fiorenzo.

I beg Leave to refer to him for any Particulars which I may have omitted, and to recommend him to the Honor of your Attention during his Reſidence in England.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

GENERAL PAOLI to his COUNTRYMEN.

Furiani, May 1, 1794.

Moſt dearly beloved Countrymen,

THE unabated Confidence with which you have honoured me, and the Solicitude I have ever had to promote your Intereſts and to enſure your Liberty, preſcribe to me the Obligation of ſtating to you the preſent Situation of Public Affairs.

You remember how many cruel and treacherous Arrangements were made by the Three Commiſſioners of the French Convention who were ſent over to our Iſland; and in what Manner they attempted to concentrate the Powers of Government in a ſmall Number of their Satellites, deſtined to be the Inſtruments of thoſe Violences and Cruelties, which were to be exerciſed againſt all well-meaning Perſons, and againſt the Nation at large.

The unjuſt Decree which ordered my Arreſt, and my Tranſfer to the Bar of the Aſſembly, was the firſt Attempt directed by them againſt your Liberty. You unanimouſly declared yourſelves, and humbly remonſtrated againſt an Act deſigned to facilitate the Execution of your Enemy's Plots: Finally, you, in a General Aſſembly, declared your Indignation at this Act of Injuſtice; and you adopted, at that Moment, ſuch Reſolutions as were conſiſtent with your Dignity and with the Public Welfare.

I accepted, as a diſtinguiſhiug Proof of your Confidence, the Commiſſion you were pleaſed to confer upon me, for providing, in thoſe critical Circumſtances, for the Maintenance of your Safety and Liberty: Anxious that you ſhould not be expoſed to any Danger, unleſs Indignation and Neceſſity commanded you to reſiſt, I tried every Means which Prudence and Moderation ſuggeſted to me at that Time; but neither your juſt Reclamations, nor my Innocence, were ſufficient to recall to Sentiments of Rectitude and Humanity a violent and ſanguinary Faction, irritated by the noble Reſiſtance you had made, and reſolved to accompliſh your Deſtruction; for which Purpoſe the Subverſion of the Government was ordered, and the Members of it proſcribed, conjointly with many other zealous Patriots: The Nation was declared in a State of Rebellion; Orders were given to reduce it by Force of Arms, and to treat it with the bloody Rigour of Revolutionary Laws.

Roused by theſe Cauſes; by the endleſs Succeſſion of Deſtruction and Ruin, which characterizes the Conduct of thoſe Perſons who exerciſe the Powers of Government in France, and by the Deſtruction of all Religion and of every Form of Worſhip, enforced and proclaimed among the People with unexampled Impiety, every Corſican felt the Neceſſity of ſeparating from the French, and of guarding againſt the poiſonous Influence of their Errors.

The Acts of Hoſtility committed by the French, and thoſe Corſican Traitors who had taken Refuge in the Garriſons of Calvi, St. Fiorenzo and Baſtia, compelled us to repel them by Force of Arms. I have ſeen, with infinite Satisfaction, during the Courſe of a whole Year, that your ancient Bravery and Attachment to your Country were not in the leaſt diminiſhed. In various Encounters the Enemy have been defeated, although numerous and ſupported by Artillery: You have treated the Priſoners, taken in the Heat of Battle, with Generoſity; whilſt the Enemy have, in cold Blood, maſſacred our Priſoners, who were ſo unfortunate as to fall into their Hands: In all theſe Agitations we have kept ourſelves united, and exempt from the Horrors of Licentiouſneſs and Anarchy; a happy Preſage of your future Fate, and an irrefragable Proof that you are deſerving of true Liberty, and that you will know how to preſerve it unſullied by Licentiouſneſs and Diſſentions.

In ſuch a State of Things, a becoming Diffidence made me, nevertheleſs, apprehend that the Enemy would increaſe in Force, and attempt to carry into Execution the deſtructive Plans they had formed againſt you: Under theſe Circumſtances I felt the Neceſſity of Foreign Aſſiſtance; and, in Conformity to your general Wiſhes, and to the public Opinion and univerſal Expectation, I had Recourſe to the King, and to the generous and powerful Nation, which had, on other Occaſions, protected the Remains of our Liberty; a Meaſure dictated by the public Safety, and which I took only when every conciliatory Offer had been obſtinately rejected, and every Hope of obtaining Moderation or Juſtice from the French Convention was extinct.

His Britannick Majeſty's Arms have made their Appearance in your Support: His Ships and Troops are employed with you to drive from our Country the common Enemy, and the Blood of Britons and Corſicans is conjointly ſhed for the Liberty of this Iſland. Our Enterprize has already been crowned with happy Events, and draws near to a fortunate Completion.

This pleaſing Aſpect of Affairs has determined me to turn my Thoughts to the moſt efficacious Means of eſtabliſhing a permanent Freedom, and of ſecuring our Iſland from the various Events which, till this Moment, have kept us in Agitation.

The Protection of the King of Great Britain, and a political Union with the Britiſh Nation, of which the Proſperity and Power, uninterrupted for Ages, are to the Univerſe Proofs of the Excellency of it's Government, have appeared to me to accord with the Happineſs and Safety of Corſica. The univerſal Opinion on this Head, evinced by the unreſerved Inclination you have ſhewn, and ſtrengthened by your Gratitude for Benefits received, appears fortunately to concur with mine. I have therefore made the proper Overtures to His Majeſty the King of Great Britain, with a View to eſtabliſh this deſireable Union.

With a Satisfaction never to be eraſed from my Mind, I now behold our Wiſhes anticipated, and our Hopes realized: The Memorial which has been tranſmitted to me by their Excellencies, the Admiral commanding the Fleet, and the Miniſter Plenipotentiary of His Majeſty, affords us the Opportunity of eſtabliſhing this Union in the Manner beſt adapted to the Benefit of both Nations, and to the Honour of His Majeſty. I cannot better make known to you their Excellencies Sentiments, than by a faithful Tranſlation of their Memorial.

The Nature of the preſent Addreſs does not permit me to enlarge upon the Benefits of this Union, which tends to conciliate the moſt extenſive Political and Civil Liberty with perſonal Security. You are convinced of theſe Truths, and will regulate your Conduct accordingly: I nevertheleſs avail myſelf of this Opportunity to declare to you, that, in taking the Engliſh Conſtitution for your Model, you will proceed upon the moſt ſolid Principles that Philoſophy, Policy, and Experience, have ever been known to combine for the Happineſs of a great People, reſerving to yourſelves the Power of adapting them to your own peculiar Situation, Cuſtoms, and Religion, without being expoſed, hereafter, to the Venality of a Traitor, or to the Ambition of a powerful Uſurper.

A Matter of ſuch Importance ought nevertheleſs to be diſcuſſed, and agreed to by you, in a General Aſſembly, at which I entreat you to aſſiſt by your Deputies, on Sunday the 8th of the enſuing Month of June, in the City of Corté. The proviſional Government will then ſuggeſt to you the Form and Mode of the Elections.

I beſeech you to impreſs yourſelves with the great Importance of the Affairs on which you have to determine; and, on that Account, let it be your Care to ſelect Perſons of Zeal and acknowledged Probity, and, as much as may be in your Power, reputable Heads of Families, intereſted in good Government and the Proſperity of the Country. Let Moderation and Propriety of Conduct prevail in your Aſſemblies, that no Perſon among you may have the Mortification to remark any Diſorder in the moſt happy Moment which has occurred in the Courſe of our Revolutions, and in paſſing the moſt important Act of Civil Society. In the mean Time, let every Man ſuggeſt whatever he may conceive moſt uſeful to the Country, in order to communicate his Opinion to the Nation, legally repreſented and aſſembled.

Corſica is now juſtly regarded by Foreign Powers as a Free Nation; her Reſolutions will, I hope, be ſuitable to her Situation, and dictated by Wiſdom and by a Love for the Publick Good.

With reſpect to myſelf, my dearly beloved Countrymen, after having devoted every Moment of my Life to your Happineſs, I ſhall eſteem myſelf the happieſt of Mankind, if, through the Means I have derived from your Confidence, I can obtain, for our Country, the Opportunity of forming a free and laſting Government, and of preſerving to Corſica, it's Name, it's Unity, and it's Independence, whilſt the Names of the Heroes who have ſpilt their Blood in it's Support and Defence, will be, for future Generations, Objects of noble Emulation and grateful Remembrance.

SIR, Victory, Baſtia Roads, April 21, 1794.

YOUR Excellency having been pleaſed to repreſent to us, on Behalf of the Corſican Nation, that the intolerable and perfidious Tyranny of the French Convention having driven that brave People to take up Arms in their own Defence, they were determined to ſhake off altogether the unjuſt Dominion of France, and to aſſert the Right of a Free and Independent Nation; but being ſenſible that their own Efforts might be inſufficient to contend with France, or other powerful Nations, who might undertake hoſtile Attempts againſt them, and confiding implicitly in the Magnanimity and Princely Virtues of His Britannick Majeſty, and in the Bravery and Generoſity of his People, they were deſirous of forming a perpetual Union with the Britiſh Nation, under the mild and equitable Government of His Majeſty and his Succeſſors, for the better Protection, and for the perpetual Security and Preſervation of their Independence and Liberties: And your Excellency having, on theſe Conſiderations, ſolicited, in the Name of the People of Corſica, His Majeſty's preſent Aſſiſtance, and His Royal Protection in Time to come, we took the ſame into our moſt ſerious Conſideration; and knowing His Majeſty's gracious and affectionate Diſpoſition towards the Corſican Nation, and his Readineſs to contribute in every Way, which is conſiſtent with Juſtice and the Intereſts of his Subjects, to the Happineſs of that brave People; and being inveſted with ſufficient Powers for that Purpoſe, we determined to comply with your Requeſt, and have accordingly furniſhed the Aid of His Majeſty's Naval and Military Forces in the Mediterranean, towards expelling the common Enemy from the Iſland of Corſica.

We

We have ſince been honoured with more ſpecial Powers and Authority to concert with your Excellency and the People of Corſica, and finally to conclude, on His Majeſty's Behalf, the particular Form and Mode of Relation which ſhall take Place between the Two Nations.

It is with the moſt lively Satisfaction we acquaint your Excellency, that we have it in Command from His Majeſty to aſſent, on his Part, to ſuch a Syſtem as will cement the Union of our Two Nations under a Common Sovereign, and, at the ſame Time, ſecure for ever the Independence of Corſica, and the Preſervation of her ancient Conſtitution, Laws and Religion.

With whatever Satisfaction His Majeſty has graciouſly aſſented to Propoſitions, which promiſe, perhaps for the firſt Time, not only to afford to this Iſland the preſent Bleſſings of Tranquillity and Peace, and a ſudden Increaſe of Proſperity and Wealth, but alſo to eſtabliſh it's National Independence and Happineſs on a ſecure and laſting Foundation; His Majeſty is, however, determined to conclude nothing without the general and free Conſent of the People of Corſica.

We therefore requeſt your Excellency to take the proper Steps for ſubmitting theſe important Matters to their Judgment; and as the ſmall Number of the Enemy, at preſent inveſted by the Britiſh and Corſican Troops, and which muſt ſoon either be deſtroyed or yield to ſuperior Force, can no longer give any Uneaſineſs to this Country, but the Freedom and Deliverance of Corſica is in Effect accompliſhed, we beg Leave to ſubmit to your Excellency, whether it may not be deſireable to take the earlieſt Meaſures for terminating theſe intereſting Concerns, and for adding a formal Sanction to that Union, which is already eſtabliſhed in the Hearts of all our Countrymen.

We have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) HOOD.
GILBERT ELLIOT.

His Excellency General Paoli,

TRANSLATION.

The General Council charged with the Proviſional Government of Corſica, to the Municipal Officers, Curates of Parijhes, and their Fellow Countrymen.

Beloved Countrymen,

THE God of Armies, Protector of the moſt juſt Cauſe, has favoured your Efforts.

The audacious Army, whoſe Fury and Violence was excited by the impious Faction which propoſed to itſelf to aboliſh all Order, Cuſtoms and Religion in Europe, will ſhortly be removed from our Territories.

To ſecure a more ſpeedy Succeſs, Providence has given you the Support of a powerful Nation, accuſtomed to reſpect Laws, and a legitimate Power, which has generouſly aſſiſted you to extricate yourſelves from the tyrannical Anarchy of the preſent Republic of France.

That Nation, and it's King, offer you the Advantages of a laſting Union and conſtant Protection.

The happy Influence of our glorious Countryman, General de Paoli, added to the Reſources of his Genius, and excited by the Dangers of his own Country, have accelerated this happy Event; in ſhort, brave Corſicans, We are free.

By our Conſtancy, Firmneſs, and Courage, we have acquired the Enjoyment of the Advantages we inherit from our Anceſtors, Liberty and Religion.

However, it would be but little to have regained this noble Succeſſion, if our Efforts and Prudence were unable to ſecure it for ever.

To inſure the Succeſs of thoſe Efforts, and to direct our Prudence, a perfect Union is neceſſary; our general Reſolutions muſt be formed with a View to our preſent Situation and our future Expectations.

The Corſicans muſt therefore preſcribe the Form of Adminiſtration and Government they chuſe to adopt, enunciate, or approve of; and the Principles on which it is to be eſtabliſhed, or on which their Legiſlation is to be fixed.

Finally, Beloved Countrymen, the moſt important Object is, a ſpeedy Union of the People, and the laſt Act of the Proviſional Adminiſtration you adopted, ordains us to ſupport the paternal and patriotic Intentions of General de Paoli.

In this Invitation we can give you but a faint Idea of the important Functions you will confide to your Repreſentatives in the next Aſſembly; however, you no Doubt know the indiſpenſible Neceſſity of adopting Meaſures for the Maintenance of internal Tranquility and of a Form of Government adapted to our Cuſtoms, Powers, and Situation, and finally to the various Relations that will hereafter be eſtabliſhed between Corſicans; the Engliſh Nation and their King feel, even more than others, the Neceſſity that ſuch Deputies ſhould be appointed among our Countrymen as ſhall have given evident Proofs of their Patriotiſm, and of their Deſire to act with a Zeal adequate to the Nature and Importance of their Miſſion, for eſtabliſhing and ſecuring by the new Order of Things, not only for the preſent, but in future, public Felicity. This laſt Conſideration, in caſe you are ſenſible of it, will, we are in Hopes, determine you to prefer one of the moſt reſpectable Heads of Family in each of your reſpective Communities, as a Repreſentative on ſuch ſolemn and important Occaſions in Council.

In this Union, which will form the moſt memorable Criſis of our Annals, the Objects muſt be treated with that Form and Order due to the Dignity of the Repreſentatives of a Free People.

The ancient Aſſemblies of our Nation, at the Time of the glorious Government of it's deſerving General, were only compoſed of One Deputy from each Community. Finding it neceſſary to avoid the Inconvenience of repeated Elections, we have thought it expedient in this Circumſtance to invite you to adopt this ancient Cuſtom, chiefly on reflecting, that as Harveſt is approaching, the Abſence of Chiefs from their Families, added to the Expences of the Journey, and Time ſpent in the Election, would be of Prejudice to their Affairs and Domeſtic Intereſts; the People will therefore eſtabliſh Conſtitutionally the Number of it's Repreſentatives for the ſucceſſive Reunions.

The zealous and good Citizens will, however, be enabled to lay before the Council their Knowledge of all important Subjects, which will be taken into Conſideration and diſcuſſed accordingly, but they will have no Part in it's Deliberations.

The General Council therefore invites all Communities of Corſica to aſſemble on Sunday the Firſt of June, each to appoint, according to the Form of Election hereunto annexed, it's Repreſentative at the General Council, and the General Aſſembly of the Clergy to take Place on the Sunday following, the 8th of June.

The Municipal Officers and Pariſhes of the reſpective Communities, are charged with the Publication and Diſtribution of both General Paoli's Circular and this.

Corté, May 9, 1794.

For the General Council of the Government.

Signed,

[A great Number of Names.]

FORM

FORM of ELECTION.

IN the Year 1794, on the Firſt of June, in the Pariſh Chur h of the Commaunity of uſual Place for the General Meeting of the Clergy.

We N. N. N. * the Inhabitants of the ſaid Community, exceeding the Age of Twenty-five, being legally united by virtue of the Circular Letter wrote on the 1ſt of May by His Excellency General de Paoli, and the one wrote by the Proviſional Government on the 9th of the ſame Month, duly publiſhed, to appoint a Deputy, who is to be a Repreſentative at the General Council of Corſica, to be held on the 8th Current, we have choſen as our Preſident Mr, N. the moſt proper Perſon among thoſe aſſembled, who know how to write, and who has appointed as his Secretary Mr. N.

In ſucceſſion to the ſaid Appointment, the Majority of Votes is given in favour of Mr. N. Father of a Family, who has been duly elected by the preſent Aſſembly, and proclaimed Deputy, and unto him we give the Power of concerting and treating with the other Repreſentatives of the Nation, on the Tranſactions that will in future take Place between Corſica and His Majeſty the King of Great Britain and the Engliſh Nation: As likewiſe on Subjects of Public Utility contained in the aforeſaid Circular Letter.

And the preſent Verbal Proceſs has been regiſtered, and depoſited in the Chancery of this Community, and a Copy given to ſerve him the ſaid Mr. N. Deputy, as a full Power and Certificate.

* Here all Names of ſuch Perſons as ſhall be preſent at the Meeting will be affixed.

TRANSLATION.

WE, the Repreſentatives of the Corſican Nation, free and independent, lawfully aſſembled in a General Meeting, poſſeſſed of a ſpecial Authority to form the preſent Conſtitutional Act, have unanimouſly decreed, under the Auſpices of the Supreme Being, the following Articles.

CHAPTER I.

Of the Nature of the Constitution, and of the Constituted Powers.

Art. I. THE Conſtitution of Corſica is Monarchical, according to the following fundamental Laws.

Art. II. The Legiſlative Power is veſted in the King and in the Repreſentatives of the People, lawfully elected and convened.

Art. III. The Legiſlature, compoſed of the King and of the Repreſentatives of the People, is denominated the Parliament; the Aſſembly of the Repreſentatives of the People is named the Houſe of Parliament; and the Repreſentatives are ſtiled Members of the Parliament.

CHAPTER II.

Of the Mode of Elections, the Number of Members, and the Functions of Parliament.

Art I. THE Territory ſhall be divided into Pieves, (Diſtricts) each of which ſhall ſend Two Members to Parliament. The Towns on the Coaſt, of which the Population ſhall amount to 3,000 Souls and upwards, have the Right of ſending Two Members each to Parliament; the Biſhops, who diſcharge the Duties of their See in Corſica, and are recognized as ſuch by the Corſican Nation, ſhall be Members of Parliament.

Art. II. The Members of Parliament ſhall be elected by all the Corſican Citizens, of Twenty-five Years of Age, who ſhall have been reſident at leaſt One Year in the Pieve, or in the Town, and who are Poſſeſſors of Land.

Art. III. No Perſon ſhall be elected a Member of Parliament, unleſs he poſſeſſes at leaſt 6,000 Livres in Land in the Pieve which he is to repreſent, and pays Taxes in Proportion to this Poſſeſſion, and unleſs born of a Corſican Father, and bonâ fide an Inhabitant, having kept Houſe for Five Years in the ſaid Pieve, and until he has arrived at the Age of Twenty-five.

Art. IV. Lodgers, except thoſe who are Inmates for Life, Perſons employed in collecting the Revenue, the Receivers and Collectors of Taxes, thoſe who have Penſions, or who are in the Service of a Foreign Power, and Prieſts, cannot be Members of the Houſe of Parliament.

Art. V. The Form of Election ſhall be determined by the Laws.

Art. VI. If a Member of the Parliament dies, or becomes incapable, according to Law, of being a Member of Parliament, another Member ſhall be elected by his Pieve, within Fifteen Days, by the King's Authority.

Art. VII. The Houſe of Parliament has the Right of enacting all the Acts which are intended to have Force of Law.

Art. VIII. The Decrees of the Houſe of Parliament ſhall not have Force of Law, unleſs they receive the King's Sanction.

Art. IX. Any Decree that has not paſſed the Houſe of Parliament, and received the King's Sanction, ſhall not be looked upon as Law, nor carried into Execution as ſuch.

Art. X. No Impoſition, Tax, or Publick Contribution, ſhall be laid without the Conſent of Parliament, or without being ſpecially granted by it.

Art. XI. Parliament has the Right of Impeachment, in the Name of the Nation, of every Agent of Government, guilty of Prevarication, before the Extraordinary Tribunal.

Art. XII. The Caſes of Prevarication ſhall be determined by the Laws.

CHAPTER III.

Of the Duration and Convocation of Parliament.

Art. I. THE Duration of One Parliament ſhall be Two Years.

Art. II. The King may diſſolve the Parliament.

Art. III. In caſe of a Diſſolution of Parliament, the King ſhall convene another within Forty Days.

Art. IV. Thoſe Perſons who were Members of the diſſolved Parliament, may be elected Members of the ſucceeding one.

Art. V. If the Parliament expires without being diſſolved, another ſhall be called, by the King's Authority, within Forty Days.

Art. VI. The King may prorogue the Parliament.

Art. VII. The Parliament cannot be convoked or aſſembled, but by the King's Command.

Art. VIII. The Interval between the convening of the Houſe and it's Prorogation, or, if it be not prorogued, until it's Diſſolution, or, if it be not diſſolved, until it's Expiration, is to be called the Seſſion of Parliament.

Art. IX. The Vice-Roy, or, in caſe of Illneſs, the Commiſſioners nominated by him for that Purpoſe, ſhall open the Seſſions in Perſon, and declare the Reaſons for convoking the Parliament.

Art. X. The Parliament may adjourn itſelf and re-aſſemble, during the ſame Seſſion.

Art. XI. The Houſe ſhall decide upon the conteſted Elections of it's Members.

Art. XII.

Art. XII. The Members of Parliament ſhall not be ſubject to Arreſt or Impriſonment for Debt during the Continuance of their Repreſentation.

CHAPTER IV.

Art. I. AFTER the Opening of Parliament by the Vice-Roy, or by his Commiſſioners, as is herein before-mentioned, the oldeſt Member ſhall take the Chair; and the Members preſent having elected a proviſional Secretary amongſt themſelves, ſhall proceed to the Choice of a Preſident, and of One or more Secretaries. The Secretaries ſhall not be choſen from among the Members; and may be diſmiſſed by a Vote of Parliament.

Art. II. The Parliament aſſembled, in all the Caſes before-mentioned, has the Power of Debate, and of paſſing Bills, whenever above One Half of it's Members are preſent.

Art. III. Every Member elected and not appearing, ſhall have Notice, from the Preſident of the Houſe, to repair to his Poſt, within Fifteen Days

Art. IV. In caſe of Non-Appearance, or of not ſending a lawful Excuſe ſatisfactory to the Houſe, ſuch Member ſhall be condemned to a Fine of 200 Livres.

Art. V. Parliament may grant Leave of Abſence, or permit the Abſence of ſuch Members who ſolicit it, provided more than One Half of it's Members remain preſent.

Art. VI. Every Propoſition made in Parliament ſhall be decided by the Majority of the Members preſent; the Preſident, in caſe of an equal Diviſion, ſhall give the caſting Vote.

Art. VII. The Forms and Procedures of enacting Laws, and of determining other Matters in the Houſe, which may not be fixed by the preſent Conſtitution, ſhall be regulated by the Houſe itſelf.

Art. VIII. The King's Sanction, or the Refuſal of it, ſhall be announced in Perſon by the King's Repreſentative in the Houſe of Parliament, or by a Special Commiſſion in caſe of Sickneſs.

Art. IX. The Form of the Sanction ſhall be, THE KING APPROVES; that of Refuſal, THE KING WILL EXAMINE: The Bills ſanctioned by the King, are named, Acts of Parliament.

Art. X. No Member of Parliament ſhall be called to Account, or puniſhed by the King's Servants, for the Opinions manifeſted, or the Doctrines profeſſed in the Houſe, or by any other Authority whatever, except by that of the Houſe itſelf.

Art. XI. The Preſident of the Parliament has the Right of calling to Order any of it's Members, when he may think proper. The Houſe may cenſure, arreſt and impriſon any of it's own Members, during the Seſſion.

CHAPTER V.

Upon the Exercise of the Executive Power.

Art. I. THE King ſhall have His immediate Repreſentative in Corſica, with the Title of Vice-Roy.

Art. II. The Vice-Roy ſhall have the Power of giving his Sanction or Refuſal to the Decrees of Parliament.

Art. III. He ſhall moreover have the Power to perform, in the King's Name, all the Acts of Government which are within the Limits of the Royal Authority:—There ſhall be a Board of Council and a Secretary of State, nominated by the King, and Mention ſhall be made in the Vice-Roy's Orders, that he has taken the Opinion of the ſaid Board of Council; and theſe Orders ſhall be counterſigned by the Secretary.

Art. IV. The Nation has the Right of petitioning, as well the Vice-Roy as the Houſe of Parliament: The conſtituted and acknowledged Corps of the Law may Petition in a Body, the other Corps in their individual Capacity only; and a Petition ſhall never be preſented by more than Twenty Perſons, however numerous may be the Signatures to it.

Art. V. The Houſe of Parliament may addreſs the King to recall his Vice-Roy; in ſuch Caſe the Houſe ſhall addreſs His Majeſty in His Privy Council aſſembled: The Vice-Roy ſhall be obliged to tranſmit the Addreſs to the King, upon the Requiſition of the Houſe, within the Term of Fifteen Days after ſuch Requiſition, and the Houſe may itſelf tranſmit it to the King, even through the Channel of a Deputation; but in any Caſe the Houſe is bound to preſent to the Vice-Roy, Fifteen Days previous to the Departure of the Addreſs, a Copy of the ſame, and of the Papers which are to accompany it.

Art. VI. The King has the excluſive Direction of all Military Arrangements, and is to provide for the internal and external Security of the Country.

Art. VII. The King declares War and makes Peace: He ſhall not be authorized, however, in any Event, nor on any Account whatſoever, to give up, alienate, or in any Manner prejudice, the Unity and Indiviſibility of Corſica and it's Dependencies.

Art. VIII. The King ſhall appoint to all the Offices of Government.

Art. IX. The ordinary Employments of Juſtice, and of the Adminiſtration of the Publick Money, ſhall be conferred upon Natives of Corſica, or Perſons naturalized Corſicans, in virtue of the Laws.

CHAPTER VI.

Of Judicial Proceedings, and of the Division of the Tribunals.

Art. I. JUSTICE ſhall be executed in the King's Name, and the Orders carried into Execution by Officers appointed by him, in conformity to the Laws.

Art. II. There ſhall be a Supreme Tribunal, compoſed of Five Judges and the King's Advocate, and this ſhall be ſtationary in Corté.

Art. III. There ſhall be a Preſident and a King's Advocate attached to every other new Juriſdiction.

Art. IV. The Functions of the ſaid reſpective Tribunals, their Adminiſtration, and the Emoluments, ſhall be determined by Law.

Art. V. There ſhall be in every Pieve a Podeſta, (Magiſtrate.)

Art. VI. In every Community there ſhall be a Municipality, named by the People, and it's Functions ſhall be regulated by the Laws.

Art. VII. Crimes, which deſerve corporal or ignominious Puniſhments, ſhall be tried by the Judges and a Jury.

Art. VIII. The King has the Power of granting Pardon, in conformity to the ſame Regulations under which he exerciſes this Prerogative in England.

Art. IX. All Civil, Criminal, Commercial Cauſes, and thoſe of every other Kind whatſoever, ſhall be terminated in Corſica, in the firſt and laſt Inſtance.

CHAPTER VII.

Of the Extraordinary Tribunal.

Art. I. THERE ſhall be an Extraordinary Tribunal, compoſed of Five Judges, appointed by the King, and commiſſioned to judge upon any Impeachment from the Houſe of Parliament, or upon all Charges made, on the Part of the King, of Prevarication, or other treaſonable Tranſactions.

Art. II. The Nature of the ſaid Crimes, and the Form of Trial, ſhall be determined upon by a ſpecial Law, but a Jury ſhall be allowed in every Caſe of this Sort.

Art. III. The Members of the Tribunal ſhall not aſſemble, but in Caſes of Impeachment by the Houſe of Parliament, or by the King; and, immediately after Judgment given, they ſhall be obliged to ſeparate.

CHAPTER VIII.

Of Personal Liberty, and of the Liberty of the Press.

Art. I. NO Perſon ſhall be deprived of his Liberty and Property but by Sentence of the Tribunals acknowledged by the Laws, and in the Caſes and according to the Forms preſcribed.

Art. II. Whoever ſhall be arreſted or placed in Confinement, ſhall be conducted, within the Term of Twenty-four Hours, before the Competent Tribunal, in order that the Cauſe of his Detention may be adjudged according to Law.

Art. III. In caſe of the Arreſt being declared vexatious, the Perſon arreſted will have a Right of claiming Damages and Intereſt before the Competent Tribunals.

Art. IV. The Liberty of the Preſs is decreed, but the Abuſe of it is to be amenable to the Laws.

Art. V. Every Corſican ſhall have the Power freely to depart from his Country, and to return to it with his Property, conforming himſelf to the Regulations and Ordonnances of General Police, obſerved in ſuch Caſes.

CHAPTER IX.

Of the Corsican Flag and Navigation.

Art. I. THE Standard ſhall bear a Moor's Head, quartered with the King's Arms, according to the Form which ſhall be preſcribed by His Majeſty.

Art. II. The King ſhall afford the ſame Protection to the Trade and Navigation of the Corſicans as to the Trade and Navigation of his other Subjects.

Art. III. The Corſican Nation, deeply penetrated with Sentiments of Gratitude towards the King of Great Britain and the Engliſh Nation, for the Munificence and Protection which it has always enjoyed, and which is now, in a more ſpecial Manner, ſecured to it by the preſent Conſtitutional Act,

Declares, That it will conſider every Attempt which in War or in Peace ſhall be made to promote the Glory of His Majeſty, and the Intereſts of the Empire of Great Britain in general, as it's own; and the Parliament of Corſica will always manifeſt it's Readineſs and Deference to adopt all Regulations, conſiſtent with it's preſent Conſtitution, which ſhall be enacted by His Majeſty in his Parliament of Great Britain, for the Extenſion and Advantage of the external Commerce of the Empire, and of it's Dependencies.

CHAPTER X.

Of Religion.

Art. I. THE Catholick, Apoſtolick, Roman Religion, in all it's Evangelical Purity, ſhall be the only National Religion in Corſica.

Art. II. The Houſe of Parliament is authorized to determine on the Number of Pariſhes, to ſettle the Salaries of the Prieſts, and to take Meaſures for enſuring the Diſcharge of Epiſcopal Functions, in Concert with the Holy See.

Art. III. All other Modes of Worſhip are tolerated.

CHAPTER XI.

Of the Crown and it's Succession.

THE Sovereign King of Corſica, is His Majeſty, George the Third, King of Great-Britain, and his Succeſſors, according to the Order of Succeſſion to the Throne of Great Britain.

CHAPTER XII.

Art. I. THE preſent Act ſhall be preſented to His Majeſty, the King of Great Britain, through his Excellency Sir Gilbert Elliot, His Commiſſary Plenipotentiary, and ſpecially authorized for this Purpoſe.

Art. II. In the Act of Acceptance His Majeſty, and his Plenipotentiary in His Name, ſhall ſwear to maintain the Liberty of the Corſican Nation, according to the Conſtitution and the Laws; and the ſame Oath ſhall be adminiſtered to his Succeſſors, upon every Succeſſion to the Throne.

Art. III. The Members of the Aſſembly ſhall immediately take the following Oath, which ſhall be adminiſtered by his Excellency Sir Gilbert Elliot: "I ſwear for myſelf, and in the Name of the Corſican Nation, which I repreſent, that I acknowledge for my Sovereign and King His Majeſty George the Third, the King of Great Britain; to yield him faithful Obedience, according to the Conſtitution and Laws of Corſica, and to defend the ſaid Conſtitution and Laws."

Art. IV. Every Corſican ſhall, in his reſpective Community, take the preceding Oath.

Done, and unanimouſly decreed, and after Three Readings, on Three ſucceeding Days, in the General Aſſembly of the Corſican Nation, in Corté, this Day, 19th June, 1794, and individually ſigned in the Aſſembly of all the Members of which it is compoſed.

Signed by above Four Hundred Names.

ALL the Members of the Aſſembly having individually ſigned the Conſtitutional Act, it was propoſed to preſent it to his Excellency Sir Gilbert Elliot, His Britannick Majeſty's Commiſſary Plenipotentiary, in order that it might be accepted by him in His ſaid Majeſty's Name. The Aſſembly having adopted this Propoſition, decreed, That the ſaid Propoſition ſhall be made by a Deputation of Twelve Members, who were choſen and commiſſioned for this Purpoſe.

After which the Deputation, having executed the Commiſſion aſſigned to them, re-entered the Hall, and with them the ſaid Sir Gilbert Elliot: The Members of the Aſſembly ſtood up, during which he approached the Preſident, and pronounced the following Acceptation:

I, The underſigned Baronet, Member of the Parliament of Great Britain, Member of the Privy Council, and Commiſſary Plenipotentiary of His Britannick Majeſty, having Full Power, and being ſpecially authorized for this Purpoſe, do accept, in the Name of His Majeſty George the Third, King of Great Britain, the Crown and Sovereignty of Corſica, according to the Conſtitution and the Fundamental Laws contained in the Act of a General Aſſembly held at Corté, and definitively ſettled this ſame Day, the 19th of June, and as ſuch offered to His Majeſty; and, in His Majeſty's Name, I ſwear to maintain the Liberty of the Corſican Nation, according to the Conſtitution and to the Laws.

The preſent Acceptation and Oath is by us ſigned and ſealed.

(L. S.) GILBERT ELLIOT.

THE ſaid Acceptation and Oath being read, the ſaid Sir Gilbert Elliot propoſed to the Preſident and to the Aſſembly the Conſtitutional Oath; and this was taken by them in the following Words;

"I Swear for myſelf, and in the Name of the "Corſican Nation, which I repreſent, to acknowledge "for my Sovereign and King, His Majeſty George "the Third, the King of Great Britain, to yield

"him

" him faithful Obedience according to the Conſtitu-
" tion and the Laws of Corſica, and to maintain the
" ſaid Conſtitution and Laws."

The Conſtitutional Act being entirely completed and finiſhed, the Preſident adjourned the Seſſion, and ſigned the above, as did alſo the Secretaries, the Year, Month and Day above-mentioned.

(Signed)

PASQUALE DE PAOLI, Preſident.
CARLO ANDREA POZZO DI BARGO, Secretary.
GIO. ANDREA MUSELLI, Secretary.

TRANSLATION.

Speech made in the General Aſſembly of Corſica, on the Acceptation of the Crown and Conſtitution of that Iſland, by his Excellency Sir Gilbert Elliot.

GENTLEMEN,

IN availing myſelf, for the firſt Time, in the Midſt of the Corſican Nation, of the Privilege of calling you Brothers and Fellow Citizens, a Reflection, which will naturally occur to every one, excites in me the moſt heartfelt Satisfaction; independent of the reciprocal political Advantages which we may derive from ſo cloſe a Connection, I ſee, on the preſent Occaſion, every Thing that can render it more precious and more eſtimable by the Sentiments of Confidence and of Affection, the firſt and pure Principles of our Union, which they will for ever continue to cement and conſolidate.

This remarkable Truth, which it is impoſſible to overlook, cannot be mentioned without a ſtrong Emotion of Senſibility and Joy. Our Two Nations have, for a long Period, been diſtinguiſhed by a reciprocal and remarkable Eſteem Without anticipating the happy End to which this inſtinctive Partiality, this ſympathetic Attraction, may ſome Day lead us, we have given to each other Inſtances of Confidence on every Occaſion, yet no Relations have hitherto ſubſiſted between us, except thoſe of reciprocal and voluntary good Offices. Our Minds have been prepared by Providence for the Fate which awaited us, and the Divine Goodneſs, intending our Union, has ordained that it ſhould be anticipated and brought about (if I may ſo expreſs myſelf,) by a Similarity of Character, and by a Conformity of Views and Principle, and, above all, by a pleaſing Exchange of friendly Services.

This ſacred Compact, which I received from your Hands, is not a cold and intereſted Agreement between two Parties who meet by Accident, and form a Contract founded on the Impulſe of the Moment, or on a ſelfiſh and temporary Policy.—No; the Event of this happy Day is only the Completion of Wiſhes we had previouſly formed; To-day our Hands are joined, but our Hearts have long been united, and our Motto ſhould be Amici & non di ventura.

However ſeducing this Proſpect of our Happineſs may appear, I truſt (and it is important for us to know it, as we aſſuredly do) that it does not depend on Sentiment alone; but that it reſts on the ſolid Baſis of the true Intereſts and permanent Felicity of the Two Nations.

I will not mention to you the Intereſts of Great Britain upon this Occaſion; not that they are of little Conſequence, but being of a Nature purely political the Subject would be too cold, too dry, for this important Day. Beſides, it is not neceſſary on this Occaſion to appreciate them in Detail. I ſhall confine myſelf to this Remark, that every poſſible Advantage, which Great Britain could have in View from her Union with Corſica, is eſſentially attached to your political and abſolute Independence of every European Power, and that theſe Advantages are not only compatible with your Intereſts, but cannot for the moſt Part exiſt, and ſtill leſs flouriſh, but in Proportion to your Proſperity.

On your Part, what is neceſſary to render you a happy People? I will tell you in two Words—Liberty at Home, and Security Abroad.

Your Liberty will not be expoſed to any Encroachments from a Monarch, who, by his own Experience and the Example of his Anceſtors for ſeveral Generations, is perſuaded that the Liberty and the Proſperity of his People is the only Foundation of the Power, the Glory, and the Splendor of the Throne. A King who has ever governed according to the Laws, and whoſe Sceptre is at once ſtrengthened by the Privileges and embelliſhed by the Happineſs of his Subjects: Here I might expatiate on the auguſt Virtues of that Monarch whom you have choſen for your own; but they are known to all his Subjects: You will therefore become acquainted with them by a happy and certain Experience, and this Teſtimony will be far more faithful than my weak Voice.

It would not, however, be right that your Liberty ſhould depend ſolely on the perſonal Virtues of the Monarch. You have therefore been careful to enſure it by the wiſe Conſtitution and fundamental Laws of our Union, which, in my Opinion, conſtitute ſo eſſential a Part of the Act you preſent to me this Day, that I could not (without violating the Confidence repoſed in me by my Sovereign,) agree to a Syſtem which might have degenerated into Tyranny; a Condition equally unfavourable to the Happineſs of him who exerciſes it, and of thoſe who endure it.

If His Majeſty, therefore, accepts the Crown which you have agreed to offer him, it is becauſe he is determined to protect, and never to enſlave thoſe from whom he receives it; and, above all, becauſe it is given, and not ſeized upon by Violence.

For external Security, you wanted nothing but the conſtant and active Alliance of a Maritime Power: This Act enſures it to you; and whilſt you enjoy at Home Peace and Tranquility, which the Enemy will no longer be able to interrupt, you will ſhare with us the Treaſures of Trade, and the Sovereignty of the Seas.

From this Day therefore you are quiet and free. To preſerve theſe Bleſſings, you have only to preſerve your ancient Virtues, Courage, and the ſacred Love of your Country.—Theſe are the native Virtues of your Soil; they will be enriched by thoſe which accompany our Union, and which you will derive from our Induſtry, from our long Experience, (that true Source of political Wiſdom) and from our Love of Liberty, at once enthuſiaſtic and enlightened. I ſpeak of that Liberty which has for it's Object to maintain your Civil Rights, and the Happineſs of the People; not to ſerve Ambition and Vice: That Liberty, which is inſeparable from Religion, Order, Reſpect for the Laws, and a ſacred Regard for Property, the firſt Principles of every human Society; that Liberty which abhors every Kind of Deſpotiſm and eſpecially that moſt terrible of all Deſpotiſm, which ariſes from the unreſtrained Violence of the human Paſſions. Such are the Virtues which belong both to you and to us; on their happy Mixture and Influence on each other depends the Proſperity of Corſica. Immediate Liberty, and a progreſſive and encreaſing Proſperity. Such is the Text; to which I hope and venture to predict that our Behaviour to each other, and our common Deſtinies will always prove a faithful and a ſatisfactory Illuſtration.

Whitehall, July 22.

The following Addreſs has been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, Inhabitants of the City of New Sarum, Cloſe and Neighbourhood, happy in every Opportunity of teſtifying our Affection and Zeal to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on the very ſignal Victory obtained over the French Fleet on the 1ſt of June by the Britiſh Navy under the Command of Admiral Earl Howe.

We embrace this Opportunity likewiſe to congratulate your Majeſty on the Conqueſts which have been made by the Fleet and Army in the Weſt Indies, under the Command of Sir John Jervis and Sir Charles Grey.

We ardently invoke that Providence which diſpoſes your Royal Breaſt to promote and ſecure the Welfare and Happineſs of all your Subjects, that theſe brilliant Succeſſes of your Majeſty's Arms may be the Means of checking the violent and ſanguinary Meaſures of the Enemy, and of reſtoring to all the Belligerent Powers the Bleſſings of Peace, and that your Majeſty may very long enjoy the Affections of a free, great and loyal People.

Downing-Street, July 10, 1794.

WHereas it has been represented to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that in the Night of the 18th Ultimo, about Eleven o'Clock, a Lugger of about Thirty Tons Burthen, laden with Spirits and Tobacco, appeared off Sizewell, on the Coast of Suffolk; that being hailed, and required to shorten Sail by the Boat belonging to His Majesty's Excise Cutter the Lively, the said Lugger discharged a Volley of Musquetry into the said Boat, and continued to engage her with Small Arms for about Ten Minutes, when Two Men were wounded; that, upon the Boat returning with more Men, the said Lugger was found on Shore on Sizewell Beach, and immediately renewed the Firing, continued it for some Time, and wounded another Man; and that the Crew of the Lugger afterwards kept up a constant Fire on His Majesty's Cutter till about One o'Clock, when they quitted the said Lugger, and set her on Fire.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons under whose Direction or Conduct this Act of Violence and Felony has been committed, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Offenders, who shall discover his, her or their Accomplices therein, (except the Master or Commander on Board the said Lugger) so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence. HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the Master or Commander of the said Lugger; and also a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the Mate or Second in Command of the said Lugger, to be paid by the Commissioners of the Excise on Conviction.
